

WHAT HAPPENED AFTER THE RESURRECTION?

Christians around the world have spent a lot of time over the last few weeks pondering the Gospel accounts of Jesus' death and resurrection. During Easter week, we read the familiar stories of the Triumphant Entry, the Last Supper, the crucifixion... and then with the Resurrection on Easter Sunday, the story ends. Right?

Not quite. While the Gospels of Matthew and Mark end shortly after the Resurrection, Luke and John provide extra detail about what Jesus did during the time between his resurrection and his ascent into heaven. If your Gospel reading stopped at the Resurrection, you're missing out on several interesting stories.

Luke and John both describe at length Jesus' post-Resurrection appearances to his followers. (Mark mentions these briefly as well.) Jesus' appearance before "doubting Thomas" and the other disciples (in John and in Luke) are well known and contain a number of little details. For instance, Jesus appeared "when the disciples were together, with the doors locked for fear of the Jewish leaders"—a minor sentence, but one that communicates the terror and bewilderment that must have plagued the disciples in the immediate aftermath of Jesus' crucifixion. If you had been one of Jesus' disciples, what might you have done in this situation—reeling from the death of your teacher, fearing for your life, and wondering if everything you believed in was really true?

The Gospel of Luke also describes an encounter with Jesus on the road to Emmaus. With tantalizing but confused rumors of the empty tomb still spreading, Jesus appears in disguise to a pair of his followers. After visiting with and teaching them for some time, Jesus reveals himself in a beautifully-described scene:

When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?"

The Gospel of John provides a few more memorable stories. First, Jesus (again, unrecognized at first) performs his last recorded miracle, overwhelming the disciples' fishing nets with a huge catch. Shortly thereafter is the moving story of Peter's reinstatement. Peter, who had denied knowing Jesus three times during his master's trial, is questioned by Jesus... three times. It is during this questioning that Jesus gives Peter the famous charge to "Feed my sheep."

Matthew and Mark both close with the "Great Commission," Jesus' instructions to his disciples to go out into the world and spread the good news of salvation:

Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age." (Matthew 28:18-20 NIV)

This passage has long been the basis of the Christian emphasis on sharing the Gospel with the world through evangelism and missionary work.

Mark and Luke describe Jesus' departure from earth into heaven, "taken up into heaven" after speaking to his disciples a final time.

It's clear from the Gospel accounts that the story of Jesus reaches its culmination with the Resurrection. But the tidbits we do get about the post-Resurrection days not only satisfy some of our curiosity about how Jesus' Resurrection was received by his followers, but also give us the evangelistic direction that guides Christ-followers to this day. Do not let the resurrection be the end of our story.....

THANK YOU FROM PASTOR CHRIS

Dear Friends at St. John's UCC

It was a joy to have friends from St. John's at the installation service on March 17. You have been an integral part of my ministry and so it was important for me to have you there as I begin a new chapter in my ministry. I also know that several of my parishioners enjoyed meeting with you and I just hope you didn't tell too many stories. Anne, Zach and Rachel were also thrilled to see some of their Fredericksburg friends. The kids still talk about St. John's UCC. We continue to hold you in our thoughts and prayers as you move forward with the transition.

Blessings,

Pastor Chris Rankin

HARTMAN CENTER SUMMER CAMP 2013

Sharon, myself (Pastor Herb), and our two sons had many enjoyable experiences at Harman Center. As our sons were growing up, they attended summer camps, and as a family we attended a number of family camps. Both Sharon and myself, alone or together, have attended many workshops or retreats at Hartman Center. And one of our greatest experiences was to attend a grandparents weekend with our son, daughter-in-law, and two grandchildren.

This year there is a 4th of July Weekend Community Adventure camp. This adventure will take place from Wednesday, July 3, through Sunday Morning, July 7. There will be trips to sign up for, worship opportunities, crafts to work on, and hikes to take. There will be singing around campfires, roasting hotdogs, and making smores.

Also this year there is a camp for women (Spiritual Practices for Women from July 28 to Aug 3) and a camp for men (The Carpenter's Apprentice from June 16 to 22). For grades 3 thru 6 a camp called "Mud, Bugs and God" sure sounds interesting, and how about "Lions, Hobbits & Hogwarts, O My!" for grades 6 thru 9.

Check out the folders on Hartman Center Summer Camp 2013 as enter church.

If you have never been camping at Hartman Center you are missing a chance to experience God In a new and exciting ways.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING

We may have missed the scheduled date for One Great Hour of Sharing, which was March 10, but we are not forgetting this important and valuable chance to share with those in need.

We will be collecting funds during the month of April to help support clean water, food, medicines, shelter, healthcare and education as well as responding to disasters in both the US and internationally.

Watch for envelopes in the April 7 bulletin and in the pews during the whole month of April.

Let us continue to show the world that we care.

A few things I can report on is that many have noticed that we have finally gotten the new door in the Sanctuary. Even though there are some finishing work that needs to be done, this is one large project that is coming to conclusion. You will also see the basement going through some changes as well. There will be some new "facilities" in the boys and girls bathrooms as well as a complete and final facelift to the remaining areas. We are grateful to the hard and dedicated efforts of our building and grounds committee.

Our final member of the search committee has been confirmed. Amber Daub we are sure will bring a more youthful perspective concerning some of the many gifts of our future pastor should be offering. The church profile has been resurrected so that the committee can now begin meeting and working through updating much of that information. Again, the members of the church will play an important role with some of our decision making on what we need to continue our existence as a God-loving, family church.

We have raised all of the money necessary for the AED purchase. Again, your generosity is more than we can expect as we continue getting our church building to the 21st Century and beyond. We cannot offer enough thanks to all of those of you who have so graciously donated. This life saving equipment is critical to our surroundings. Even though we all pray that we will never need to use it, it is a blessing to know that it is here in the event we do.

We are now working through a very difficult decision concerning our summer months. It has been suggested that we consider taking a hiatus from the Christian Connection and morning Circle time over the summer months (in conjunction with the school schedule). It was hoped that perhaps we could begin our morning worship service at between 9-9:30AM giving members more time in their afternoons. Consistory is also working with Christian Education and Music and Worship with this item. Help us to pray over this important decision as we continue to work through what is best for our members as a whole.

We have not heard any negative comments in this area, so I will consider it a sign that we made the right decision. Just a reminder that the VOICE will be available each month on our website at <http://www.stjohnsuccfburg.org/thevoice/> or copies will be printed and available each month on the table located in the narthex for your convenience. Also, we are well aware that some do not have computer access so in those cases we must rely on a call from you or a note to the office to let us know just that. We will mail those pieces with a standard first class stamp.

As always I want to remind everyone that Consistory is here for you. You are the voice we answer to where our church needs are concerned. Please let us know if you have concerns or if there is something that we are just not quite on the mark. It is important that your voice is heard.

We continue to work hard to keep our church as loved and necessary as it always has been. You are the people who make it what it is. You give it life and offer it breath to sustain our Christian lives. May we always continue to do this work together as one in the body of Christ.

April's Children's Christian Connection By Angela Michael

The children will learn about the story of the Good Samaritan. Scripture: Luke 10:25-37; Memory Verse: "Love your enemies. Do good to those who hate you. Bless those who call down curses on you. And pray for those who treat you badly." Luke 6:27-28 (NIRV)

St John's Fellowship At Work by Regina Engler

We met on March the 19th.
 We did not just sit and chatter.
 In deep deliberation
 We talked of things that matter.

OK, now that we have your attention, here's what we did as the men and women of our congregation work together to go forward into the future as God's people. We'd like to share the plans we made with you.

Although Spring seems to be in hiding with the groundhog, one of our committees is overseeing the order and placement of flowers within the sanctuary for Easter. Many of you have helped with your order. We are also having our sanctuary and social hall windows professionally cleaned so that we can enjoy that sunshine when it appears.

On Easter Sunday, you will be offered a small cardboard bank to be used prayerfully between that time and Thankoffering Sunday in November when there will be an ingathering of those banks. During 2012, those funds were earmarked for our congregation's Missions Committee's use. Plan now how you will use the bank you receive. Keep it in plain sight as a reminder to be thankful.

Although our congregation has an official Fundraising Committee, the Fellowship has a few projects throughout the year. Cookbooks are always available for purchase and the Avon representative provides our group with those small booklets of items for men, women and children. A current drive is underway and will end April 21, so ask Peggy Mohn or another Fellowship member if you'd like to order something.

Of course, the "biggie" is the Spring Flea Market and Bake Sale scheduled for April 19 & 20. Set up will take place Tuesday, April 16, at 6:30 p.m., prior to the next monthly meeting of this group with sorting and pricing on Thursday, the 18th. A sign-up sheet on the social hall bulletin board is available for your signature. Your help is appreciated as are the delicious baked goods for which St. John's is noted.

We value each member of our congregation and hope you will come and share the light of Christ that lives in you.

CONGREGATION LIFE By Ginny Knapp

WOW – The Ditzler-Dorsey duo had the place rockin'! They presented “St. John’s Idol” and “Dancing with St. John’s” during the return of the Birthday Social on Saturday, February 23.

St. John’s Idol featured Mickey Voshell, Gary Trautman and Wendy Dorsey. Regina Engler and Rev. Herb. Hibshman, who won the judges’ prize for his rendition of “Bye Bye Love”. Judges were “Randy” Keith Gingrich, Julie “Abdul” Ditzler and “Simon” Joe Ditzler.

Dancing with the stars were Jean Ann and Neal Grimes, jitterbug; Robin Getz and Gary Trautman, polka; Sharon and Herb Hibshman, ballroom; and Julie and Joe Ditzler, disco. After the polka ended when Gary couldn’t maneuver, Robin and Wendy performed a scarf dance around Gary who was seated in a wheelchair, Winners of the contest were Jean Ann and Neal. Judges were “Weezy” Louise Walmer, “Char” Charlene Ziegler and “Randy” Keith Gingrich.

A big kudo to all the hostesses of the tables. Decorations and foods were outstanding! Robin Getz served as Master of Ceremonies.

St. John's United Church of Christ is: A church of faith, heeding to God's call, through worship, evangelism, discipleship and fellowship. We are building on our church's history, while looking to our future. Our church is filled with messengers, who share the gift of God's love, with the community and beyond. We strive to be a church that reaches out to all with compassion, a vision of God's everlasting peace, and a witness of spiritual hope to our present and future generations. For all this and so much more, we pray in God's name.
