The Pastor's Voice: "Blessed Past, Bold Future"

Dear Friends,

I want to first take the time to thank you for your support of me during this time of transition. I want all of you to know that it was not easy decision for me to resign as your pastor. However, I believe that God is calling me to new challenges so that I can continue to grow in my ministry. I also believe that God is calling you to new challenges so that you can grow in your ministry. Therefore, I believe this is a good time for all of us!

St. John's has had a blessed past. You have been a place of love and hope in the Fredericksburg community for almost 275 years. That is a wonderful legacy! A lot has changed over the years. Some of our loved ones are no longer with us and new people have come into our midst. Through all of this we can boldly proclaim that God is good! The problem with some churches today is they try to hang on to the glory days. All you need to do is look around and you will quickly notice that it is no longer the 1950's. The culture has changed around us and it continues to change. The church tends to gripe about those changes rather than look for ways to respond and to engage with those changes. How can we make the gospel relevant in the midst of a changing world? How will we move forward into the future? I am aware that many of you are concerned and maybe even afraid of what the short term future looks like without a settled pastor. I want to ask every member to be in prayer during this time of transition. You must hold the Consistory in prayer as they search for an interim pastor, who will then guide you during this transition. I hope that if you are asked to serve on the Profile Committee or the Search Committee that you will see this as a way to help your church move forward into the future.

Several people have been asking me about the future of St. John's. As we look around on Sunday mornings we see the numbers declining. Our Christian Education program has dwindled over the years. We don't have the young people that we once did. I must be honest and so it is hard for me to not take this personally. I feel in many ways that I have failed. Therefore, I think this time of transition is a great opportunity for St. John's to take time to discern how God can shape you into a new thing. I hope and pray that you will be open to the movement of the Holy Spirit. I guess that is my answer to the question regarding the future of St. John's. In order to have a bold future, you must be open to the Holy Spirit! We must remember the words of the familiar hymn by Isaac Watts, "O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come." I pray that you will look to God to guide you for the years to come.

As we begin the month of October, I am reminded that I began my ministry here on October 1, 2004. As we reflect on the past eight years, we can truly see how God has been present with us and how God has used us to share the gospel of Jesus Christ. As you take time to think about all that we have accomplished over the past eight years, I leave you with the words of a hymn that will serve as a blessing for you as a congregation:

Great work has God begun
in you, so let the Spirit follow through;
The mark of Christ upon your brow, baptismal touch
remember now.

Great work has God begun in you; take on God's love in all you do,
And may that love in you increase now, with God's blessing, go in peace.

Blessings,

Pastor Chris

Worship Highlights for October :

October 7 (19th Sunday after Pentecost/World Communion Sunday): We will join our brothers and sisters around the world in celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion. We begin a series of readings from Job and confront the complex problem of human suffering. How can we find God's loving presence in the midst of distress?

October 14 (20th Sunday after Pentecost): In great misery, Job cries out, wanting to plead his case before the Lord. Jesus is asked, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus gives the command to sell everything in order to become a disciple. We come to God with a lot of questions, but we must be ready to receive some unexpected answers

October 21 (21st Sunday after Pentecost/Harvest Home Sunday): The gospel reading tells us about James and John requesting Jesus for special treatment. The passage concludes with Jesus saying, "For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many." We will celebrate Harvest Home Sunday by collecting canned goods for the JOY food pantry in Jonestown.

October 28 (22nd Sunday after Pentecost/Reformation Sunday): Our service will include the order of healing as we read the story of Bartimaeus in our gospel passage. As we celebrate the history of the church on this Reformation Sunday, how can we continue to be a reformed and reforming church so that we can extend the healing love of God?

From the Christian Education Corner by Angela Michael

First, thanks to Pastor Chris, Julie Ditzler and Robin Getz for organizing and leading the youth in the Car Wash/Bake Sale/Picnic that kicked off Rally Day weekend on Sept. 8th. Proceeds from the Car Wash/Bake Sale benefited both the Christian Connection Heifer International Summer mission project (we'll be sending some chickens & possibly another animal to a family in a third world country) and Operation Christmas Child. Thank you to all who came out to support these events. At the picnic the youth started a devotional series called "Fruits of the Spirit" that they will follow through during the rest of the Youth Adventures throughout August 2013.

The next Youth Adventure is Saturday, Oct. 27, the youth will meet at the church at 6pm before leaving for the Risser Marvel Corn Maze, Hay Ride & Camp Fire activities. This adventure will be lead & organized by Melissa Seltzer. (Please note that the date changed from the one that appears in the Youth Adventures pamphlet) The Youth Adventures schedule through Jan 2013 is posted on the Youth Ministry page of the church website.

The 2013 Children's workshop schedule has been completed. Next year the children will learn about the following stories or people from the Bible: Elijah vs. the False Prophets, the Parable of the Good Samaritan, Jesus Feeds the 5,000, Joseph in Egypt, the Lord's Prayer, Moses, Ruth & Samuel. This year there is a slight change to the Christmas program in that the Music & Worship Committee will be working with the children and the adults to put on a show for us on December 23 during worship. Christian Education continues to plan new experiences throughout the year & I encourage you to look for details of coming events in future newsletters.

Rally Day Thank You

Prayer Chain Ministry

There is a devoted group of women (where are the men??) who serve on our prayer chain and we are grateful for their willingness to participate in this special ministry. When the pastor or the church office knows of a prayer concern, we then activate the prayer chain. Our current members are: Regina Engler, Priscilla Dearwechter, Peggy Mohn, Melissa Seltzer, Anne Hambrick-Stowe, Amy Zechman, Madelyn Fegan, Karen Light, Pat Renstchler, Wendy Dorsey, Donnette Quairoli, and Robin Getz. If a current member of the group wants to be removed from the list, please speak with Pastor Chris. If anyone in the congregation wants to become part of the prayer chain ministry, please speak to the pastor. We will send out a new list in November.

Visitation Ministry Team

There is a small, but dedicated group of people who visit our church members when they are in the hospital. We are always looking for new people to join this very important ministry. We are grateful to Regina Engler, Pat & Earl Ziegler, Neal & Jean Ann Grimes, and Peggy & Jerry Mohn for serving on this time. If you are interested in helping, please speak to Pastor Chris or Peggy Mohn, the Visitation Team Leader

A Thank you from Charlene Ziegler:

Fall is here, the Sr. Choir is back in their loft and it is time to thank the talented volunteers at St. John's for the Summer Musical Offerings. The St. John's Quartet sang for us early on and then Joe Ditzler organized the St. John's Singers. Robin Getz sang and Gary Trautman and Wendy Dorsey performed a duet on other Sundays. Denise Voshell also shared her talent and Aleta Babe and her granddaughter, Michelle Jackson, sang a duet. You all did a wonderful job!

I also want to thank Regina Engler for making sure that her sons, Glenn and Darryl Engler, came to sing and play for us. Regina also brought The Ringleaders, a barbershop quartet to St. John's. Terry and Ginny Knapp's grandson, Elliot, played his cello and his friend, Serena Cheng, played the piano. What talented young people!! And to finish out the season, The Swatara Singers sang for us in Pennsylvania Dutch.

We were truly blessed to have a nice variety of music this summer. Thank you for making a joyful noise to the Lord or for asking others to share their talents!

LUNCH WITH THE PASTOR

Our next luncheon will be held on October 2 from noon-1pm! If you can't stay for the whole time that is ok! All you need to do is bring a sandwich and Pastor Chris will supply the rest!
